

If you are a mother please read this message....

My son loved Jesus he was a good, loving child... He would say "yes mam" "no sir" he never argued when he was asked to do something. He would perform (church) drama and could not finish before he would break down and start worshipping Jesus. He went to church faithfully Sundays, Wednesdays, Drama practice and Saturday for prayer service.

Wednesday he played a song on his Ipod he got from me for Christmas "Home" by Michael Buble. He played that song and we sang it over and over together.

He wanted me to come back to church and for his siblings to live right. He had gospel songs on his Ipod. God wanted my angel in heaven. Instead of me showing him who Jesus is, he was showing me. I should have been right there every service with him. He prayed for me to come back to church and if I know him he would have sacrificed for me to get there before it was to late.

I will pick up where he left off and come back to God. His death will not have been in vain devil... I thank God for a father and mother who stepped in my place and continuously taught my son about Jesus and his love. There is nothing down here worth not making it to heaven to see my baby. I am at peace because my son was baptized last year and lived a life loving Jesus. If you are a mother please take your child to church and teach them about Jesus before it is to late and you have many regrets.

I will see my son again.... Will you?
